SEEKING CONTRAST

A breath-taking view of the downtown Miami skyline in the foreground, the National Park with its tropical diving waters behind you: Key Biscayne straddles the divide between buzzing metropolis and tranquil mangrove forest. BISCAYNE by VALLONE is inspired by the stimulating contrast between urban sleekness and serene natural beauty. With its clean lines and its double personality, this worktop washbasin is as rich in contrast as life in the beachside metropolis itself. Available in the classic version or an XL variant for even more daily comfort.
